Years and years ago a "James Bond Encyclopedia" by Steven Jay Rubin came out and considering it wasn't an "EON officially" sanctioned book (stock photos and mediocre writing) it wasn't all THAT bad. I've been collecting 007 books for a long time, many of them from the internet, and came out dissappointed many times but was able to recover from my initial skepticism to buying this new Bond Encyclopedia when I noticed John Cork was one of the authors. He's responsible for the excelent BOND GIRLS ARE FOREVER and the JAMES BOND LEGACY, perhaps the two best Bond books I've every bought. Well, the JAMES BOND ENCYCLOPEDIA certainly doesn't dissappoint, hundreds of terrific pictures organized by category (movie, vehicles, girls, villains, etc.) include even the most obscure of entries. While a dream come true for aficionados, it's definetly bound to please casual Bond fans also (and who isn't ?)

Full of facts from Ian Fleming's decision to bring bond to the big screen; To movie #1 "Dr No" All the way through the last listed in this book Casino Royale. The screenplay necessary to make each movie a success are outlined, woven magnificently throughout the book: The Bond Style; The Villians; The Women; The Vehicles; The Weapons. . .

Excellent book for James Bond's fans. Great pictures and very informative information. Lots of interesting insider's tidbits. Better than most of the Bonds book I've seen.

It is a very interesting and full of information book. Great for a Bond fan. I bought this for my boyfriend who is a passionate fan of 007 movies and he was really excited about it. You cand find everything you want to know about the movies, the actors, cars, Bond girls etc. It has a lot of pictures, too.It can be a very nice present for someone who enjoy Bond world.

Cool book!

Excellent

Fantastic!

Amazing product!
