Zinnia's Flower Garden

Synopsis

Springtime is here, and Zinnia can't wait to plant her seeds and watch them grow. She carefully takes care of her garden, watering her plants, weeding, and waiting patiently for something to sprout. Kindergarten-Grade 2 - Wellington's familiar gouache cartoons skillfully meld with photographs of flowers for a merry trek through every season of gardening. Red-haired Zinnia, with the help of her cat and dog pals, demonstrates the skills that bring forth a brilliant wealth of blossoms. The author augments the discussion of the process with instructive border illustrations. Each spread also features tidbits of information such as the types of clouds, the life cycle of a butterfly, parts of a flower, or money math (atop the page of her lemonade and flower stand). Wellington wraps up the tale with a page of tips for growing one's own bouquets. Rich in application and enjoyment. (School Library Journal)[A] terrific introduction to the life cycle of plants and a good choice for young gardeners everywhere. (Kirkus Reviews)

I sent this book to my granddaughters at the beginning of summer when they started their garden. I have not seen the book, but my daughter said it is a great book. She said the illustrations are good and it has a nice story and it tells about how to grow plants. She also said it was a good book to send with the flower seed packs I sent.

I used this book for a Preschool story hour at a local library. The illustrations were bright and colorful with realistic photos of different kinds of flowers. It held the attention of 2 to 4 yr olds. A great lesson in learning about planting flowers and what they need to grow and thrive. After reading the book, the children planted their own zinnia seeds. So glad the book arrived quickly and in wonderful condition so we could use it for our story hour. I can't wait to read it to my 2 1/2 year old Grandson when I visit him this week!!

My children and I really loved reading this book for our lessons on flowers! Loved how the illustrations incorporate drawings along with real pictures of the plants. So beautifully illustrated and colorful!

Sweet little book for my granddaughter, Zinnia..

Christmas gift. She loves it. Can read it herself.

PERFECT! Our baby granddaughter's name is Zinnia.

My granddaughter (3 years old) loved it! We had just finished planting containers so she could it was something we had done together and she could relate to.

Darling book
