The standard in thesaurus': a must have for every home, every library. Paired with the Merriam Webster Dictionary this Thesaurus becomes a formidable writing tool offering several different alternative words for nearly every word in the English Language. I bought this for my Son when teaching him how to keep a journal. he now uses his thesaurus every day and loves just looking for new words in it!

This was purchased for my ten year old autistic son. He has enjoyed reading through it and it has helped him expand his vocabulary. He prefers actual books as opposed to digital copies. The size isn't too wide nor too tall making it easy to transport. He carries this either in his backpack to school or also with his other notebooks and dictionary when at home, in the van, etc. It is seemingly perfect for what he needs it for!

Print is so small even someone with 20/20 vision has a hard time seeing the print.

I'm not a very good speller. Sometimes my spelling is so bad a dictionary is useless. If I can think of a similar word, the Thesaurus often lists the word I'm looking for. I needed a new Thesaurus as my last one was falling apart. The Merriam-Webster Thesaurus does well for me and I've already used it several times. This Thesaurus has a short dictionary definition of each word. I'm sure this makes this soft covered book a little bigger (it is slightly over 1-1/4 inches thick, 4" wide, and 6-7/8" tall).

Tiny book with print so small you need a microscope to read it. Horribly designed. Terrible quality edition!!

When I first got the book, it seemed too small to be useful, but when I opened it I found that the print was small. This makes it to where a lot is packed into a relatively small space. Works for me, but be aware of the small print if you have trouble reading anything that small.

The perfect addition to a budding writer's reference library! Inexpensive, easy to handle, and it should survive a LOT of look-ups.

Book arrived smashed up ruining the front cover but otherwise intact. For that I'm taking away two stars.
