Volleyball Coaching Wizards: Insights And Experience From Some Of The Worlds Great Coaches

Synopsis

Eight master volleyball coaches with experience covering all levels, both genders, all over the world, indoors and on the sand. Their experience, insights, and expertise all in one place, just waiting for you to make them part of your own coaching!

Carl McGown: Renown for his 40+ years of work with the USA Men's National Team, the BYU men's college team, and being a promoter of the idea of specificity in volleyball training.

Giovanni Guidetti: 2016 Olympic coach for the Dutch Women's National Team and for Turkish professional club Vakifbank. Winner of two CEV Champions Leagues and an FIVB World Club Championship.

Ruth Nelson: AVCA Hall of Fame inductee with over 500 NCAA Division I victories alongside coaching at the national team level and in professional volleyball. Now dedicates her time to players under 10.

Jefferson Williams: Winner of nearly 60 league and cup titles in the UK. Coached at the national team level for both England and Team GB.

Teri Clemens: Won 7 NCAA Division III national championships in 14 years, including 6 in a row. Also won three straight state championships as a high school coach before moving to college volleyball.

Garth Pischke: The winningest men's collegiate volleyball coach in North America with nearly 1300 victories in Canada, including 9 national titles and 9 runner-up finishes.

Tom Turco: Winner of 17 state high school championships, including a 110 match winning streak. Twice selected National Coach of the Year.

Craig Marshall: Australian National Team beach coach for three Olympics. Nearly 20 years coaching on the international professional beach tour. You may know a few of these coaches, at least by reputation. Chances are there are some you've never heard of at all, though. The thing they share is lots of success in their particular volleyball arena, or in some cases across multiple arenas. They each have things they can share with you about how they got to where they are, including mistakes they've made along the way.

What is Volleyball Coaching Wizards? The Volleyball Coaching Wizards project is about identifying great coaches from all categories of volleyball and making their experience, insights, and expertise available to people all over the world. We interview coaches from across the globe, all age groups, both genders, all competitive levels, indoor and beach. They share with us their philosophies, their thought processes, and their methodologies. We then share that with you. This is not about drills and games. There are other great places to get that type of material. Instead, Volleyball Coaching Wizards is about the thinking that surrounds the technical and tactical side of things. It's about letting you see what great volleyball coaches have in common, and where they differ despite all having great success over their career. There are two main goals of the Wizards project. One is to provide both information and inspiration to volleyball coaches everywhere. The other is to help develop a real volleyball coaching literature, one which matches what can be found in other sports. About the Authors John Forman is the author of the well-respected blog at coachingvb.com. Responses could have been organized more concisely.

"While there is no shortage of books about volleyball drills, there are scarcely any books about our best loved identities which we have come to expect in other sports. For the first time, Volleyball Coaching Wizards collects interviews with some of the best volleyball coaches who have shaped the game, examining their personal stories, triumphs, failures, motivations, philosophies and methods, which have led them to successful careers. Interviews include volleyball coaching legends Carl McGown, Giovanni Guidetti and Craig Marshall. I hope this is the first of many editions."

I actually think you two have been brilliant with this Wizard Project and know that it is important for everyone to have a place in the history of volleyball. There are so many more coaches to interview and so much knowledge to share! I thank you for an innovative approach to providing not only young aspiring coaches an opportunity to learn from many different cultures but also for those that really just want to hear the stories and life experiences and great advice. Great job John and Mark as I have enjoyed learning about so many coaches i never personally knew.

A great collection of interviews from a range of coaches. Insight to make you think and for you to use every day.
