Customer Reviews

Not as good as other guides. There is little information about how to get to a place via public transport. The maps are of poor quality and difficult to read. It lacks detail, especially regarding museums in smaller towns or musical events, festivals, etc. .The guide is great for folks only interested in outdoor activities.

As always, appears to be a very useful thorough guide to a beautiful country. This trip we'll be hiking the Via Alpina from Trieste, Italy, through Slovenia's Julian Alps, so we'll see how useful the guide is for small villages and back country sights.

an ok book, but Rick Steve's Slovenia/Croatia is much better Overall very good book. Very helpful. Information is accurate and up to date.
