Just as described.

This is a very beautiful, awe inspiring book. I did not like it quite as much as Jim Harter's more mature work, Initiations in the Abyss, but it is nonetheless worthy of praise in its own right. This artist's compositions are thought-provoking as well as beautiful, and walk the line between the sublime and the absurd. Some of his pieces made me laugh while others were worthy of looking at for long periods of time to catch all of the irony and delicate mysticism.
