Comfort food, covered dish dinner food, white people cuisine. Call it what you like, but the recipes are tried and true.

nothing great liked the previous cookbooks much better.

Wife thinks this is absolutely wonderful..she is crazy about cookbooks.

Watch the show every week. Great picture, can't wait to try the recipes.

I am such a HUGE fan of this show (along with America's Test Kitchen). It's a little sad to not see Christopher Kimball on the cover, but he has moved on to Milk Street. I digress. I used so many bookmarks for all the shows I had bookmarked of recipes I wanted to make. I subscribe to their magazine and their website. The reason I bought this book is so that I could have the recipes at my fingertips for when I make them. Believe me, I have made MANY of these.. from Burnt Ends (so good) to their burgers, brisket, Strawberry Dream Cake and on and on... I just know that Cook's Country recipes are fabulous. I love that there's a photo for every single recipe and they are beautifully done in full color. This is one of my favorite "Go To" recipe source books. This weekend, I'm going to make the Peach Kuchen, since they are in full season. Next up, Kolaches. I have been longing to make these for a long time. Oh, the Cheesy grits recipe is to die for, along with the Shrimp & Grits. I made this for a dinner party, for some Southern friends and he said it was as good as it gets.

This by far is the absolute best cookbook from Cook's Country which I have ever received. It is loaded with a color photo for each recipe with simple ingredients you can find anywhere, and full easy directions. It also offers help and tips on preparation and ensuring each recipe is a culinary masterpiece for anyone! It also offers suggestions and recommendations for equipment to buy which was recommended by the Cook's Country pro staff. I have many ATK cookbooks and this is by far the very best of ATK & Cooks county since the staff is representative of both. I am an Prime Member and this is my honest review. I did not receive any compensation or gifts from anyone for this honest Prime Member Cookbook review.

I happened to channel surf onto QVC when this book was being segmented a few weeks ago. As I've spent 35 years as a chef in fine dining and own hundreds of cookbooks, this book struck me as a great compilation of American cuisine and thus a well rounded reference guide. The recipes are recited very clearly with a photo of each dish and an explanation as to why they (Cook's Country) decided upon the recipe they published. (Most recipes receive as many as 35 revisions.) The book includes a very handy guide as to C.C.'s preferred pantry products and equipment guide, including "runner-ups". Well written & presented, this cookbook makes a great addition to any cook's recipe repertoire and is highly recommended.
