Gabriel Picolo is an artist and illustrator based out of Sao Paulo Brazil. Gabriel amassed a huge online following during his 365 Day of Doodles creative challenge, where he posted a piece of artwork generated every single day. Throughout that process, he developed a deep understanding of creativity and creative evolution. He has since developed a few storylines including that of his Icarus and The Sun characters; rife with love, emotion and the nature of relationships. Be sure to follow him on Instagram, Facebook and check out his vast amount of work on Deviant Art!

I've been following Gabriel's work online, and my 9-year old son is an aspiring artist and loves Beast Boy, so natural fit. Glad to support the absolutely beautiful and effortless-looking work. So vivacious, clean and consistent, how does he do it?! I know it's not as easy as he makes it seem. That said, Gabriel's body of work is quite astounding. The Celestial images are some of my favorite, particularly the detailed explanations of the celestial arrows. Great work, wonderful art + journal! HUGE fan :)

An interesting book by a brilliantly talented Brazilian artist. I stumbled across his work on Deviant Arts. Check out his work. I'd like to see more art books from him. His image of Where's Waldo holding a kitten (not in this collection) is a favorite of mine. Recommended.

I love this book so much, you're an amazing artist and I hope to be as amazing when I become a tattoo artist (@art_zoe) in love with this book though.

Absolutely love the journal/coloring book it's so amazing! The illustrations are something completely different and refreshing for the soul

This coloring book is very stunning and beautiful.

wanted to show the artist my support so I got this journal, and I am definitely glad I did. It is well made/printed journal, the designs/artworks are also lovely, with good paper quality for coloring in the designs...I'm actually not much of a writer/journalist but this journal definitely inspired me to start (its going slowly...but its going x) 10/10 would buy again, or buy for a friend :D

Absolute Magic!!!!The detailed work and symbolism of the characters draw me in. I follow Pico on instagram and I'm absolutely obsessed with this. I bought 2 just in case they ran out! lol wish he had a animal constellation for Virgos, but otherwise, Such an amazing book.

Favorite notebook so far. I love coloring the pictures. Only con is that the pages are thin so my pens bleed on the other side and I wish there were just few more pages to write rather than color pages but that is just my opinion
