Customer Reviews

I am a person who has visual challenges. Reading print books, particularly in a dimly-lit room are nearly impossible. I have the print copies, but for use during the services I need to be able to adjust the lighting and the font size. I purchase the Machzor as a Kindle download and can now follow the service with ease. Particularly useful to me is the "Table of Contents" on the right margin, which helps me navigate through the service. I look forward to the release of other "download-able" machzorim and siddurim in the future.

This electronic copy of the Mishkan HaNefesh was perfect. My wife is partially blind and has great difficulty reading the printed version and keeping with services or even just exploring. The electronic copy can be enlarged making it much easier for her to read. I'd recommend this to anyone

We used this this year and it was really what I have been looking for for many years

Perfect. A good blend of "old" and "new" Reform Jewish services

Nice revision of the Reformed High Holiday prayer book.

Same as the regular book, but easier to manage with my choir books.

Beautiful and thoughtful as well as thought-provoking

Been waiting for over a year.doesn't disappoint.
